Who is it for?/Course Pre-requisites

For candidates who have experience of regular football participation and coaching experience at any level and wish to become more committed to coaching football to children and adults.

This course contains a high proportion of practical involvement and candidates will be encouraged to participate to maximise their opportunities for learning. The inability to participate will not prevent successful completion of the award.

***You must hold a valid FA Child Protection Certificate and a First Aid Certificate (minimum 3 Hours) prior to attending your final assessment. Please contact the Coach Education Team on 0113 812 7437 if you need further assistance with these workshops*****

NB - 1st4sport and Carnegie Coach Education strongly recommend that candidates with limited experience of coaching attend the Level 1 Certificate in Coaching Football prior to attending the Level 2 Certificate in Coaching Football.
